

I oppose any change that will affect Indiana's "No-Call" law especially that based on an "established business relationship". I have enjoyed the freedom of having no nuisance phone calls for some time now and do not want banks or any other entity calling to sell us something just because we are an existing customer. The Telephone Privacy law is working very well and no changes are needed.